MYRTLE WAVES WATER PARK TO HOST JOB FAIR
225 Seasonal Job Openings Coming to Grand Strand

Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (March 12, 2013) – Myrtle Waves Water Park, South Carolina’s largest water park, is gearing up for the opening of the 2013 season by hosting a job fair on Thursday, April 4th from 3:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. at Myrtle Waves Water Park (3000 10th Ave North, Myrtle Beach, SC).

The park is seeking approximately 225 seasonal employees for all departments including admissions, retail, food and beverage, lifeguards and aquatics, maintenance, first aid and various supervisory positions. Applicants will have the opportunity to meet the team of supervisors and learn more about specific seasonal openings.

Myrtle Waves Water Park offers unique benefits for its employees that make joining the park team a rewarding experience. The park offers paid training and development with the opportunity to advance into leadership positions; monthly employee socials and community involvement events; and charity fundraising events giving back to the Grand Strand community.

“Myrtle Waves is a values-driven company that is looking to hire caring and dependable people to join our team.” says Lakeisha Dukes of Myrtle Waves Water Park. “Myrtle Waves is a fast-paced environment, but we stand behind our ‘Remember It’s Fun’ core value. We offer flexible schedules and truly have a heart for each of our team members. We offer each employee a Season Pass, employee discounts on food and merchandise, family perks and competitive pay increases after 90 days of exceptional work.”

PARC has been in Horry County for the past six years and is committed to supporting the workforce in the Grand Strand community. Candidates may apply online <http://myrtlewaves.com/jobs.aspx> ; applications will be available during job fair and interviews will be conducted onsite. Myrtle Waves Water Park is schedule to open for the 2013 season on May 11th.
