SCOUT DAY AT MYRTLE WAVES WATER PARK

Scout Troops receive a Myrtle Waves scout badge with group of 15 or more

Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (August 28, 2013) – Myrtle Waves Water Park is pleased to invite Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts to enjoy one last splash of the summer for Scout Day on Saturday, September 7th, which will include half-price admission from 10:00 am – 1:00 pm. Scout troops of 15 people or more who book in advance will receive a special, discounted admission of $15.00 per person, along with a free Myrtle Waves Water Park Scout badge. Scouts who do not meet the minimum group number are still invited to attend and will still receive the discounted admission price of $15.00 per Scout by showing their troop number, badge or certificate.

Myrtle Waves Water Park will be open from 10:00 am – 6:00 pm on Saturday, September 7 and all attractions are scheduled to be operating throughout the day. Regular admission pricing is $29.99+tax for adults and $25.99+tax for children under 48” tall.

“Inviting the Scout troops out to the water park as we near the end of summer is a great way to reward and encourage them, and we’re happy to provide a place where they can come enjoy a day of splashing fun with other Scouts,” says Kyle Embry, General Manager of Myrtle Waves Water Park.

To book your troop and receive the Myrtle Waves Water Park badge, call or email Jennifer Dodge at 843-913-9240 or Jennifer.dodge@myrtlewaves.com. The full 2013 park operating calendar may be found at www.MyrtleWaves.com.
